Bernatz Law Office was established by Attorney Michael D. Bernatz and is located in the Choate Building, 53 E. Third Street, Winona, MN. Mike takes a practical and professional approach to his practice and strives to efficiently and effectively meet the needs of his clients. Bernatz Law Office uses current technologies to better serve its clients.

Mike is a 1976 graduate of Luther College, Decorah, Iowa and a 1980 graduate of the University of Minnesota Law School. He has practiced law in Winona since 1980. Mike also serves as a Volunteer Attorney for Southern Minnesota Regional Legal Services. He is a member of the Minnesota State and the Winona County Bar Associations.

Mike's legal experience includes estate planning, probate and elder law, including guardianships, conservatorships and Medical Assistance planning. He can provide assistance in the purchase and sale of real estate and the establishment and administration of a business, partnership, corporation or a limited liability company.

Mike has been actively involved in community activities, including prior service on the District 861 School Board and the Winona Family YMCA Board of Directors. He presently serves on the Board of Directors of Winona Community Foundation and the Lutheran Campus Center at Winona State University. He is a member and past president of the Winona Rotary Club and serves as a community representative on the District 861 Athletic Advisory Committee.
