

For years he cleared the sidewalks...

Today, years after he passed away, Dillard Sobeck is helping to clear a path to the future.

Dillard Sobeck was a custodian at Madison Elementary School in Winona, Minnesota. The work wasn't high-paying or glamorous, but he loved it because of the kids. At his death, Dillard established a small yearly scholarship for students from Madison who were graduating from high school and on their way to college. That way, Dillard could be assured he could continue to remove barriers to their success.
